DECLUTTER WITH PETER WALSH

Spare Room / Study

Stylist Anita has plenty of clutter fuelled by all the props and set dressings required for her work. Sadly, once they're used, they end up living in Anita's spare room. She has made attempts to clear them over the years – even organizing a garage sale and getting friends to help but it always seems to come back. The clutter has even spread out to the front, where Anita has a vintage caravan that has been dubbed an 'overflow space for junk'. Can Peter get to the root of why Anita just can't let go?

TRAVEL WITH CHRIS BROWN

Winter at Cradle Mountain

When asked to picture snow-covered mountaintops and frozen lakes, most Australians would think of places halfway across the world. But if you venture south to the Apple Isle, you'll find our very own winter wonderland right here, with Cradle Mountain proving to be the jewel in Tasmania's crown in all seasons. Chris heads south to challenge his photography skills against renowned Tasmanian photographer Paul Fleming.

FOOD WITH MIGUEL MAESTRE

The Trust the Signs tour is hitting the road and showing Australia how to 'Trust the Signs', Trust your Gut and Ask R U OK? Barry and Miguel meet up with the RUOK CEO Katherine Newton. Katherine ties Miguel and Barry together and sets them a challenge to work together to make a batch of cruffins – a hybrid pastry of a croissant and muffin.

VANILLA CRUFFINS

Makes 6 Jumbo Cruffins

3 x 375g all butter puff pastry sheets, semi thawed

Icing sugar mixture, for dusting

Plain flour, for dusting

Vanilla Butter

180g butter, at room temperature

1 vanilla beans, seeds scraped

3 tbs icing sugar mixture

1. For the vanilla butter, combine butter, vanilla seeds and icing sugar in a bowl until combined. This has to be very soft but NOT MELTED. Grease a 6-hole jumbo muffin pan.
2. Unroll the semi-thawed pastry and place flat on the bench, dusted with flour.
3. Using a pastry brush, brush a very thin layer of vanilla butter evenly all over the dough. Once finished, start rolling the dough from one end to the other, as tight as possible, into a firm roll.
4. When done, cut the roll in half lengthwise with a sharp knife. With the cut side facing outward, twirl the half dough roll into horseshoe shape tuck the ends into the pan – they should be high and not be too tight, so the can still expand a bit. Repeat with remaining dough and vanilla butter.
5. Preheat the oven to 200°C fan-forced. Bake the cruffins for 25 – 35 minutes until golden brown and cooked through. Let cool slightly on a wire rack, then dust with icing sugar.

To make smaller cruffins, cut dough in half before buttering to fill 12 holes of a regular-sized muffin pan.
